“ His smile, intense love for his family and adoration for redheads made us a natural pair. I will never know anyone who craved corned beef hash from a can or has been engaged as many times as Roy. His family was his heart but his grandchildren were the twinkle in his eye.
I miss him and will for quite sometime.

“ With a million memories in mind probably my favorite is the day he showed up at the hospital to meet his brand new Granddaughter. With the gift of her 1st baby doll in his hands he was so very proud of her and that continued till the day he left us.
