“ Doug was just here, fixing up his camper. He was so excited. It's hard to believe he's gone, just like that. I'm so glad he and I got to chat and I could thank him for being Dustin's Scoutmaster. We met in Canada at the boy scout/Girl Scout jamboree and we owe this amazing life we've built to that single stroke of fate. So, Doug— thank you for taking your scouts to Canada, where I met my love and began this magical life! ❤️

Such an outgoing, engaging and energetic man. Gone too soon 💔 We really looked forward to getting to know him better this summer it. His adoration of you, Mary was so evident. We are glad you had the opportunity to redo the cabin together. He was so proud of that project, and rightly so. You will always have precious memories there. Sending love and support from your LLWC family. Rest well, Doug.
