“ *<My Dear Aunt Sally, for now you are in heaven an angle watching over me. We have so many great memories of all of us together, I remember starting the fire a Christmas time, & all the wonderful meals we had. I will forever hold you dear to my heart, and will miss you. Playing cards, your wonderful smile, and always on the run, always had somewhere to go. Love you, blessing and prayers to all your family. God Bless, my you rest in peace.
Love Andy, Tina, Josh Jesse*

“ Sally was my next door neighbor where I grew up on Corbin Street. I remember the awesome Halloween costumes she would make for herself & dress up in, especially 'The Tin Man'. She always had a smile, just like in this picture. She was very sweet, always had something nice to say, very nice Family to grow up next to.
