“ I met Shannon first on the ice playing hockey against him. A real competitor on the ice. I was lucky enough to land on a team with him a few years ago. He was a smart player who was always smiling and having a great time, even as he was knocking me around. Our paths again crossed while I was shooting some skeet at Williams. Turned out he was a heck of a shooter as well. Shannon was a great guy who clearly enjoyed life. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.

“ I was lucky to play hockey with Shanny for the last 15 years. On the ice, in the locker room and the occasional pop after the game he was fun to be around. We played on some good teams and some really bad ones. He had a way of making everyone smile even on the really bad teams. He was a great guy and a great player. He will certainly be missed. My condolences to his friends and family.
