“ Shirley, our first cousin, will always be remembered as courageous and strong, expressing her love as very concerned about family members, very happy to be a grandmother. To me, each summer visit to Grandma's while growing up, always meant Staying Overnight with Shirley & Sandy & Jane. Fun memories!!
Shirley's role in making the Janowiak Family Reunions successful meant we all have precious memories of our Janowiak family too. We will miss Shirley.

“ Im so sorry to about Shirley. She was a true lady and a strong person. I will cherish the belly laugh i got out of her when i suggested we go skinny dipping at July 4th fireworks at Lakeside in 2012. Thankfully neither of us wanted to be arrested that night! Rest in peace sweet lady. Mike, she adored you and your kids. Love and God Bless, Dawn Corless

“ So sorry for your loss Mike. What a fantastic mother she was and such a lady. I will always remember how her eyes lit up when she was with Riley and will be forever grateful for the happiness she has had in the last year or so which she found with Paul.
