“ Shirley shared our pew at St. Rita's every Saturday for many years. Such a lovely lady & so faithful. She prayed for everyone. Add the good laughs we had together. Will miss our phone conversations too. Rest in peace Shirley.

“ I first met Shirley when I lived/worked at Holly Hills campground in the 80's. She and her husband the bought a place kitty-corner from my grandma and they became good friends. Whenever we would see each other we would hug and talk. She was caring, funny and a spitfire lady.. definitely a keeper. My heart hurts today 💔. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Rest in peace Shirley...I love you Debbie
