“ Where do I start...

I've known Stephen practically my entire life.

From growing up in Cyclone Park playing anything Ball wise to being neighbors for over 35 years.

He was always one true fella in my life, so I felt that he was my fourth brother. We had a lot of laughs, like when he would call my daughter a "Minnie Marti" and usually something the kids or the neighbors were doing and a lot of tears, from my end. Life wasn't always easy for me and there he was, just like that! I was always grateful for Stephen and Darlene, not sure what'd I'd do without them.

Love you Brother Stephen, rest easy now. Peace💜
