“ When we were young the world was smaller and we grew up spending a lot of time together. Tom was my cousin - I called him my big cousin because he was 6 months older than me - and he always looked out for me. As the world grew bigger we drifted apart but the love and feelings never left our hearts. Today I grieve for my big cousin and know that he is in a wonderful place. My sympathies to all of his family. A great loss for you and me. Jane Carpenter

I really never had the priviledge of knowing Mr. Alsbach personally, but I do know threw Tammy that he was hard driven and he loved his kids dearly. So sorry for their loss, but he is in God's hands now.
