“ For Tommy* and those who loved him

*Three days ago it mattered.
We wondered how many crows gather on the church's crenellation; how seldom
words contain the vowel formation oeu;
how gradually to stir uncooked risotto into the boiling water.
Who cares now?
By what audacity does decanted wine breathe,
or, linen covered pillows rest fluffily and unaffected?
We hear distance winds loudly agitate the water's surface,
witness gray squirrels restlessly
dash through our gardens. Each of our feet plods over and over after the other in the emptiness
of dusk. But there seems no reason for it.
It simply continues to happen.*

“ My name is Lisa Edwards I used to go to Olive Garden with my boyfriend Thomas King and we used to have Thomas as our server. He was our favorite one. He was so kind and caring, and Loving. He always gave us a hug when we saw him and when we found out he was no longer working there my heart was broken in two I cried. He will forever be in our hearts. God bless you Thomas thank you for being such a Kind person. Love your friends Lisa Edwards and Thomas King.

“ Tom was such a sweetheart to everyone, I'm so sorry to hear of his passing. We used to work together at the crisis home back in like 2004 or so. Tom always made everyone laugh even on their worst day. My heart is so sad and still feels unreal. My deepest condolences to all his family and his many many friends. He is loved and will be missed forever!

“ Growing up with you was amazing. Your mother was a mom to us all. The oldest memory of you was dancing. You performed for a small group of us a contemporary number and it made me cry. As we grew older you inspired me in so many ways Tommy B I miss you I love you. You were so wonderful to my family. The greatest guncle ever. My heart aches because I miss you so. Hugs my friend 🤔💋
