“ It was a distinct honor to have had the good fortune of sharing our love of music together, from our days singing in the Madrigals group at CHS to the many hours of barbershop harmonies that rang out in the night 'til the wee hours of the morning with Bruce & Scott. T, you will be missed.

“ Tracy and i knew each other from his work at Tower. I am a supplier and he purchase some product. He was the best part of my day when i saw him. I was shocked when i heard his passing. I spoke with him in January just for well wishes. Tracy was a fantastic person to work with, talk with, joke with. He always introduced me like was his best friend. He always asked how the wife was, how the family was. A truly caring, great soul. He was someone that i could really talk to, and confide in on difficult days, and was always supportive. Tracy was truly a great person and I will miss him, and remember him for my life. No one on here knows me but this man affected me in the most positive way. Thank you Tracy for being great! I hope i get to she him again and pray his pain is gone.

Tracy was a light on a hill at Tower, he always brightened up the days, no matter what he was going through. Jazz music soothing the stress of the day, His smiling face and stories were always present. It was such a blessing to have met and worked with him, the memory of his smiling face and fedora(s) will be greatly cherished and missed.

“ Tracy was my neighbor. One of the kindest souls I have been blessed to know. Truly, a gem in every sense of the word. I watched in amazement at the strength of Tracy. He NEVER missed a beat. He strived for his family. He worked as long as his body would let him. I have the upmost respect and admiration for Tracy. He fought to the very last breath. Teresa, I know that you are hurting. You know that I am here. You and Tracy made my life brighter. I am so sorry 💜 Now I don't have him to cook for and I will forever miss doing that for him 💜. Now you and Jeff are going to have to eat my concoctions. With Love, Robin and Jeff

“ My memory of Tracy is based on a pleasant working relationship with a good man!

Nobody really knows how they'll react to a problem like Tracy was facing. I think I saw a man with tremendous courage and the will to fight. He never lost his sense of humor or ability to share a smile.

I'll miss him.

“ I've not had the privilege to meet Tracy, but oh, how I enjoyed the story of you taking him to Detroit for some Jazz fun! Hearing your memory with him and the joy in your voice, Trish, on what a beautiful time it was, really blessed me so much. You are an amazing family. Sending all my love and lots of prayers. I'm so sorry for your broken hearts. :(We love you! Elizabeth, Dan, & kids
