“ My mother was an angel on earth. I can not think of anyone that ever had an issue with her. She worked hard and loved harder. She cared for anyone that crossed her path, and was never judgemental. Mom was a friend to all and was as loyal as they come. Babies were her specialty, she loved them babies. When she wasn't working with her hands, she was knitting or crocheting. Mom liked to sing, but like me, could not carry a tune. What she was good at...was doing the twist. Play any dancing music and away she would go. Mom had a bigger heart than anyone I know and was as unique as her name, Twyla Mooneen!
Viking strong - Love you Mom 🥰
