I miss watching you playthr guitar dad. I'll never forget when mom was in a rehab home after her stroke. You picked up your guitar and started to sing in the hallway. Their was a paid musician playing music to the residents. All the residents turned their walkers and mozied on to you. You are a beautiful angel. I love you dad.

Hi Dennis, Dad amazed me too. He would bring up God all the time. He could quote a piece of scripture for any situation that arose in life. No matter what happened Dad never lost his faith in God. Itw good hear Dad had a positive a influence on so many people. Thank you.
