Love my Uncle Verne so much. There is so much love with and our family in fact that's pretty much all we have is a few months amount of law. It's in our genes passed down from our grandparents Elmer and Anna Odden. What a wonderful voice we are, and I love you all. God-bless you aunt Betty you're in my prayers everyday.

“ Aunt Jo, Rodger, Craig, Tim and Jeff:

Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I know you are grieving Uncle Vern's passing but we all know he is in a much better place now. I bet Dad was second in line behind Christ to welcome him to Heaven.

A few years ago I lost a good friend of mine in a Line of Duty death. I wrote the following as a tribute to him, his dedicated service to our great nation and his ultimate sacrifice on the altar of freedom.

I believe this describes Uncle Vern's life as well as it did my own Father. I hope you enjoy it. We love you!

Eric and Lois Odden

There are those young men and women that choose early in life, as you did, to make a positive difference in not only their life but also those around them. You are of a bloodline in our country that is most prominent to me and others who have chosen this same profession. It is a bloodline that is shared by families of men and women that proudly wear the uniform, badges, and titles of our military and our law enforcement families.

A bloodline that has a legacy and depth of honor and pride that only those that have been touched by the sacrifices of serving their country, at times the ultimate sacrifice, will ever truly appreciate. It is one that runs strong through those that are willing to sacrifice all to protect and serve, whether here on our shores or abroad, so that other Americans can sleep soundly, live, celebrate, pray, and enjoy our way of life safely. "Honor, Integrity, Duty and Espirit de Corps" ... to some they are mere words but to you they are a way of life.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Rest In Peace Uncle Vern.
