“ Just saw the obituary didn't know he was ill. So sorry for your family's loss. I worked will Bill for many years. I was in the Dispatching office so I didn't see him but a few times but for years I talked with him every day. He was always in good spirits and had a little joke for no matter what was going on. I enjoyed working with him everyday. He was a good railroad man. Again so sorry for your loss. Scott D. Maidment

“ The most hard working, giving man I’ve ever known. Pop had a heart of gold and absolutely loved his entire family. He loved being a goof ball and had a great sense of humor. Strong as an ox but wouldn’t harm a flea. I loved this man with all my heart, and made sure I told him often. R.I.P. and breath easy, you will always be remembered! ”
