“ Bill played a huge part in my transition from the Marine Corps into civilian life. After I left the Marine Corps with disabling issues, Bill helped me navigate the VA and would push me daily, to get into school and utilize every opportunity out there. I recently completed my master program and I owe it all to him because it would have never happened had he given up on me. Semper Fi brother, you will be missed!

“ Not enough text space for all the memories. Super guy with a great heart and was the only one of us smart enough to learn how to dance in our teens. So sorry to hear about this. He was a lot of fun to be around and always smiling and laughing.
